

Backpack Safety

You're on the right track when you know how to pack!

Pack light or your back will hurt. Your backpack should weigh less than 5-10% of your weight.

Don't let your backpack hang more than 4 inches below your belt or it will strain your shoulders.

Pull the straps for a tight fit. Loose straps can make your spine crooked.

